May 15-16, 2010

The Indianapolis Rowing Center sent 75 rowers to the Midwest Regional Regatta in Cincinnati this weekend. The competition includes 33 crews from 28 cities in the hunt for a National Championship bid.

14 IRC's 19 entries progressed through the heats to compete in the Regional finals on Sunday.

IRC did not receive a National Championship Bid, but the crews rowed well. The juniors are developing an awareness of their potential and can build speed for next year through improved fitness. While IRC is losing several strong seniors, the junior class is ready to step forward.

Nice season, IRC!
